

AUSTRALIA

6th Largest Country
&
the smallest continent

Geography

Geography

Greetings

Australians speak English, but with a distinct variation:

G'day means good day

Hoo-roo or Cheerio means good-bye

Conversation with Aussie Slang

Strine - conversation with a lot of Aussie slang arvo – Afternoon.

ay - Pardon me.

barrack –
A cheer for your team.

good on ya - Well done!

hang on a tick - Wait a minute.

howzat – How is that?

reckon! - You bet!

too right! - absolutely!

Word Meanings

American vs. Australian

sloppy joe

Australian = cotton fleecy-lined sweater American = ground beef sandwich

tea

Australian = evening meal, dinner American = a hot beverage

wag*–

Australian = to skip school or work: to wag school American = to wave something

Australia is the Worlds Largest Exporter of:

- Coal
- Wool
- Alumina
- Diamonds

- Sheep
- Lead
- Refined zinc ores
- Mineral sands

Other Exports Include:

- Veal
- Lamb
- Sugar
- Nickel

- Beef
- Mutton
- Cereals
- Iron Ore

Australian Animals

Bandicoot – Small rat-like animal

Bilby - Have large ears like rabbits

Dingo – Wild dog

Grey Kangaroo

Koala

Numbat – Small squirrel-like animal

Tasmanian Devil

Wallaby

Wombat

Tasmanian devil in real life and cartoon!

Australia Climate

